

7 Morning Prayers for Focus

A Free Gift from The Lazy Creator Co.

THE LAZY CREATOR CO.

Welcome

Hi, I'm Michael — the person behind The Lazy Creator Co. This little collection came out of my own mornings, trying to actually focus on what matters before the day gets loud. Seven short prayers, one for each day this week. Read one each morning, sit with the verse, and let the day's focus line follow you into your actual to-do list.

If this is helpful, you'll love 365 Mornings with the Word — the full year-long version of this same practice.

DAY 1

A Prayer for Clarity

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally.

— James 1:5 (KJV)

Lord, before this day fills with noise, give me one clear thing to focus on. I don't need to see the whole path today — just the next right step. Quiet the competing voices in my head and settle my attention on what actually matters.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: name the one thing that matters most, before you open your phone.

DAY 2

A Prayer for Priorities

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

— Matthew 6:33 (KJV)

God, so much is pulling at me today — help me put first things first. Let what matters to You shape what matters to me, so I'm not just busy, but building something real.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: before your to-do list, write down what "seeking first" looks like today.

DAY 3

A Prayer Against Distraction

Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

— Hebrews 12:1 (KJV)

Lord, You know exactly what pulls my focus away — the scrolling, the comparison, the small fires that feel urgent but aren't important. Help me lay that weight down today, even just for a few hours, and run light.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: name your biggest distraction today, and one boundary against it.

DAY 4

A Prayer for Endurance

And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

— Galatians 6:9 (KJV)

God, some days focus isn't about a fresh burst of energy — it's about not quitting on something I already started. Give me strength for the unglamorous, repetitive part of the work today.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: what's one thing you're tempted to quit on that just needs one more push?

DAY 5

A Prayer for a Quiet Mind

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee.

— Isaiah 26:3 (KJV)

Lord, my mind is loud this morning — pull it back to You. Let peace be the thing that actually organizes my thoughts today, not anxiety, not urgency, not the fear of falling behind.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: take three slow breaths before you start your first task.

DAY 6

A Prayer for Purposeful Work

And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.

— Colossians 3:23 (KJV)

God, let today's work — even the boring parts — be offered to You, not just performed for whoever's watching. Help me care about doing it well because it's actually Yours, not just mine.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: pick one task today and do it as an offering, not an obligation.

DAY 7

A Prayer for Rest in the Midst of Focus

And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

— Exodus 33:14 (KJV)

Lord, focus was never meant to mean hustle without end. Remind me that Your presence, not my productivity, is what actually settles me. Let me end today knowing I don't have to prove anything else to You.

Today's Focus

Today's focus: stop before you feel "done," and rest anyway.
